

CHS Student Handbook Changes for 2016-2017

- Update the year and remove references to the class of 2016
- Update faculty and staff
- Update clubs based on the Activities Handbook
- Update names of ACT series tests in the assessment section.
 - Standardized Assessment: CHS uses state tests, as well as the Scantron Performance tests, ASVAB, ~~EXPLORE, PLAN~~, PSAT, SAT, and ACT standardized testing to help students make good academic decisions regarding courses to take and skills to improve.

- Remove seminar rule #9:

Seminar Rules

1. Students may use the seminar time to travel to their current teachers. Students are not allowed to visit other teachers without a yellow seminar pass.
2. Passes to the library must be issued by one of the library staff if a student does not have Open Travel or Early Release privileges. All students need to have an agenda to go to the library.
3. Students are to travel from one location to another by the most direct route without loitering. Students found on Campus in areas not designated on their seminar pass will be considered truant and may lose their privilege to travel for at least two weeks.
4. The teacher may give restroom and drink passes. Passes to the telephone are discouraged. An administrator must issue any pass to the parking lot.
5. Behavior expectations are the same as in any regular classroom.
6. Failure to work during seminar time may result in disciplinary action.
7. Misuse of seminar pass privileges may result in suspension of those privileges.
8. Failing seminar block will result in a call to see a counselor or administrator and possible removal from the current seminar.
- ~~9. The student may complete the date and designation columns of the seminar pass. Teachers and adult staff are to complete the remaining columns in ink.~~

- Update Parent-Teacher Conferences statement:

PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES

- Conferences are held one time each semester. During the fall and spring conferences, advisory teachers will schedule conferences with the parent and student to monitor the student's individual plan of study, long-term college and career goals, and enroll in courses for the next school year.

~~Conferences are held one time each semester. During fall conferences, parents can schedule individual conferences with teachers through the office. During spring conferences, advisory teachers will schedule enrollment conferences with the parent and student to monitor the student's graduation progress and enroll the student for the following school year.~~
