

CHS Activities Handbook Changes for 2018-2019

- Update Year
- Revise the Student Council Constitution

Article VI: Removal from Office

Section 1. A Student Council member, or elected officer or representative may be removed from office for repeated failure to attend meetings (three unexcused absences); for failure to represent the group properly (by acting in a manner which is detrimental to the welfare and best interests of the school); and for failure to carry out assigned duties. Excused absences shall be defined through the following: absence from school with a legitimate excuse such as a doctor's appointment, death in the family, or others cleared by the sponsor; seminar excuses with a teacher's signature note one day prior to the meeting; other instances cleared through sponsor and Executive Board. The Student Council shall constitute the Student Court, which decides upon removal. The Student Court for Class Officer removal shall consist of the officers Class Board and the Executive Board. The Student Court for Executive Officer removal shall consist of the Executive Board. The vote is a one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) to remove from office.

Article X: Amendments/Ratification

Section 1. The Constitution may be amended with a quorum present (one-half Student Council membership plus one executive officer) and a three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) vote is necessary for the amendments to pass. The vote shall be taken following the second of the proposed amendments. These readings will be to STUCO members at a regular meeting session. Any member of the Student Council may propose amendments to the Constitution.

By-Laws

- A. Homecoming Activities and the election of Homecoming Royalty will be planned and carried out by the Senior Class Officers and the class sponsors according to the following guidelines:
1. Homecoming activities shall include those activities, which class officers, sponsors and administrators decide to be beneficial.
 2. Homecoming King and Queen Candidates will be voted on by all members of the Senior Class (six male and six female candidates respectively) from a compiled list of seniors who have an accumulated 3.0 GPA or better. The finalists shall be those six with the greatest number of votes and who are able to fulfill all components of the candidate agreement form. After an assembly in which the 12 finalists are presented to the student body, all students vote for Homecoming Queen and King during class.
