Question: What were your CHS activities?

Answer: Band, Robotics and Electric Car Club, Scholars' Bowl, National Honor Society and Link Crew.

Question: How does it feel to be named Valedictorian?

Answer: It is quite an honor to be named valedictorian of a 6A high school and I feel as if my work has paid off.

Question: What was the toughest aspect of high school for you?

Answer: The toughest aspect of high school had to be balancing school activities with schoolwork and other obligations.

Question: Who is your favorite teacher?

Answer: Becky Hughes was my favorite teacher, as she made the time our band spent together fun.

Question: Do you have any last words?

I would like to thank the teachers, my parents, fellow students and the community for making our success possible.

Comments from Matt's teachers:

• Becky Hughes - There are many personal characteristics about Matt for which I admire and applaud him. Sometimes students with Matt's intellectual level have difficulty interacting with their peers, but this is not true for Matt. He and his peers get along very well. I have never heard Matt speak condescendingly to anyone and he is also willing to help anyone and very patient while doing so.

Sandra Beck - The question that I have heard over and over this year is, "What will we do next year without Matt?" A true natural when it comes to computers,

Above and beyond his talents for problem solving and a knack for "technical things" are Matt's strong work ethic and his willingness to help at times when the rest of us might claim we were just too busy. Sandra Beck

Matt Robertson seemed destined for a career in engineering for as long as I have known him, clear back to his sixth grade year. Above and beyond his talents for problem solving and a knack for "technical things" are Matt's strong work ethic and his willingness to help at times when the rest of us might claim we were just too busy. Matt's ability to step up to the plate and get the job done has been evident throughout USD 261 over the years. Indeed, I can't help but wonder, "What will we do next year without Matt?"

• Cathy Voss - When Matt was nominated for National Honor Society President, he expressed the concern that he might not have time to do the office justice, but that was never the case. As busy as Matt's schedule was, with his rigorous schedule of courses and his involvement in other activities, he was always able to find time for NHS. He drew NHS into the digital age by creating a FaceBook page for our chapter. A fixture at the NHS blood drives, he learned to make a great peanut butter and jelly sandwich. By the end of the year he was even comfortable using the microphone at meetings. Matt was always there to do what was needed. He exemplifies the NHS qualities of leadership, scholarship, service and character.

• Randy Batt - Matt is an exceptional individual. I remember when Matt first arrived in my 6th grade computer class. He would finish his work quickly (and accurately) then stare at me until I gave him more. Matt's motivation towards technology is a gift and he uses it to help motivate others. Matt also has integrity, loyalty, honesty and dedication; together they truly make him a leader. Matt's future is bright and I am honored to have been a part of his education.

• J.L. Walker - I remember when I first met Matt as a member of our Robotics team. My first impression was this one is sharp, but he did not know how to use the tools very well or how to build things, he was an idea person. He was that idea guy we needed, but he also learned the skills to work with the tools and machines and became the "go to" person when something needed to be done. I never had to show Matt how to do anything twice. In his junior and senior years, in fact, he showed me that we can do anything we set our mind to do. Matt would look at me after he came up with idea or one from his teammates and he would say. "We can do that." He then proceeded to get it done and got others involved to help him. As a personal note, he taught me not to underestimate what a bunch of high school students can accomplish!

• Jeremy Willig - Matt is one of the most driven and motivated students I have ever had the pleasure of working with. He will accomplish anything he puts his mind to and will have an exceptionally bright future in whatever career path he chooses.

J.L. Walker and Matt made a presentation in November to the USD 261 Board of Education about the success of the Robotics team.

Answer: It is a great honor.

Question: What was the toughest aspect of high school for you?

Answer: Mr. Shetler and Mrs. Wehkamp -- They are both challenging teachers, but they made the class fun and they are always willing to help me out.

Question: What teacher inspired you and why?

Answer: Mr. Shetler helped me develop a love for physics and now I want to teach physics to other students.

Question: Is there one teacher that changed the way you looked at your education?

Answer: Mrs. Wehkamp - The articles we read this year helped change my outlook on education.

Question: What is the best advice you could give to a freshman on his/her first day at CHS next fall?

Answer: Do your homework and turn it in on time.

Question: What is the one thing you wish you had known on your first day as a freshman?

Answer: That high school would fly by so fast.

Question: What is your dream job after graduation?

Answer: High School Chemistry/Physics teacher

Question: What would you like to be doing professionally in 2030?

Answer: I would like to be a high school chemistry and physics teacher.

Rachel was a member of the Campus High School tennis and soccer teams.

Comments from Rachel's teachers:

• Becky Hughes - Rachel has always been highly aware of the importance of academics and therefore she has made great efforts to enroll in high-level learning classes, complete top-notch class-work, and take as many opportunities as possible for extended learning. Rachel has been involved in Tennis, Soccer, Band and National Honor Society while at Campus High School. She has been an excellent role model for her peers. I have never heard her not be friendly with anyone and she is very patient with our younger students. Rachel's easy-going personality has made it easy for her to be approachable by classmates who are in need of help on a personal or academic level. She is someone teachers can count on as well to help with projects or tutoring. Rachel is a very well-rounded and very grounded young lady who has many great characteristics that are wonderful assets.

- Sandra Beck - Parents of future high-school-age students can rest easy knowing that the education of their children will be in the able hands of such bright, promising educator as Rachel Hovey. An accomplished student both inside the classroom and out, Rachel is a model student both with her word and with her actions. Having mastered the rules to "the school game," Rachel plans to pursue a career in secondary science education at Emporia State University. She is the kind of student that parents hope their children will become and she will, no doubt, be the kind of teacher each of us credits with making a real difference in our lives.

- Cathy Voss - Rachel has been a great role model for younger National Honor Society Members. She has shown them that leadership doesn't always have to be flashy. That working quietly behind the scenes doing the jobs that need to be done is necessary to the success of the group. Anytime I needed someone to step up Rachel was always there. The NHS principles of leadership, scholarship, service and character are ingrained in her personality.

- Kathryn Berryman - Rachel Hovey is obviously very intelligent, but it is many of her other qualities that make her such a great person. Rachel is kind to everyone, charmingly funny, but most of all she is trustworthy. I could assign her any task and it would be done well and without fuss. I believe Rachel possesses all the skills and attributes to achieve great things in her life as well as the character and compassion to use her talents to leave things better than she found them.

- Russell Herman - Rachel has a very positive attitude that is contagious. She does a great job of balancing a variety of activities and is a model student.

Above, Rachel had to juggle athletics and academics. Below, she delivers her salutatorian speech at the CHS graduation.

Haysville Alternative HS Valedictorian

Name: Sierra Newport

Butler Community College - Nursing

Question: How does it feel to be named Valedictorian for Haysville Alternative High School?

Answer: It feels amazing! Its a great blessing because it opens a lot of doors for college that were not opened before and it is going to save me a bunch of money!

Question: What was the toughest aspect of high school for you?

Answer: The toughest aspect of high school for me was probably the long drawn out days. Working 6 to 9 hours a night then waking up and going to school was not very easy. There was many times I felt like I couldn't make it and would stress about it for days.

Question: Who was your favorite teacher?

Answer: I love all my teachers here. They are so much better then teachers I've had at Wichita Schools. But my ultimate favorite teacher here would have to be Mr. Ferry, my 12th grade government teacher. He actually made government fun and interesting to learn about unlike most history teachers. I enjoyed going to his class every day because it was fun but I also learned a lot .

Question: What Haysville Alternative High School teacher inspired you and why?

Answer: Ms. Chung was the teacher who most inspired me. I took a math class with her first session and it was way to easy so she urged me to take Algebra 2 on VPL and that I ended up doing. It was a struggle and one Friday she stayed with me until after 3 o'clock helping me get through all the worksheets. I think that is an example of a great teacher because she took HER time to help me.

Question: What is the best advice you could give to a freshman on his/her first day at high school next fall?

Answer: Don't hang out with the wrong crowd. It makes school a lot harder and not only does it affect how you do in school it affects your relationship with your parents. Also, even as a freshman keep your grades high and try your hardest because it will affect you in your following years of school.

Question: What college you will be attending and major?

Answer: In the fall I will be attending Butler. I plan to major in nursing and after two years transfer to WSU or KU to continue my education.

Question: What will be your Dream job after graduation?

Answer: Since I want to be a nurse, my dream job would have to be working at a children's hospital because I love working with kids and I would love going to work every day, it would never get old.

Comment's from HAHS Staff:

• Yoonsook Chung - I had Sierra for Integrate Math 2 class and she was not only very bright, but also a hard working student. She was also polite to teachers.

• Marcia Craft - I had Sierra in Leadership class. She was the kind of student teachers LOVE to have in class. She is self-directed, self-motivated and eager to learn. I guess if all students were like her, we would have no reason to have our school!

Although she is rather quiet, she is determined to learn, even though the material is difficult, and I believe has a promising future ahead of her!

Reynolds Award

Haysville Middle School student Logan Ayer was the recipient of the Ron Reynolds Award of Achievement given to an 8th grade student who represents those traits that Reynolds so values: honesty, integrity, motivation and excellence in mind, body and spirit. Reynolds dedicated 43 years of his time and talents to helping the students of Haysville Middle School as their counselor, encouraging them to reach higher and achieve more in all areas; personally, physically and academically. Ayer has been a shining star in academics at HMS. He achieved straight A's throughout his grade school years. He scored in the 99th percentile on the Iowa Test of Basic Skills and earned a perfect math score on Kansas State Assessments 2 years in a row. Ayer took biology, honors English and geometry this year and served in both Natural Helpers and Scholar's Bowl. Ayer will be a Freshman at Campus High School this fall.
